The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, presents

2nd Houston Turkish Film Festival

April 11–13, 2014

The Butterfly’s Dream
Friday, April 11, 7:30 p.m.
The Butterfly's Dream 2013, 138 min.
Directed by Yılmaz Erdoğan
Set against the backdrop of Turkey during World War II, this love triangle is inspired by the lives of poets Rüştü Onur and Muzaffer Tayyip Uslu.

Saturday, April 12, 7 p.m.
Thou Gild'st the Even 2013, 107 min.
Directed by by Onur Ünlü
Black-and-white cinematography distinguishes this modern-day fable set in Anatolia, where the lives of a barber and his neighbors are transformed.

Saturday, April 12, 9 p.m.
Yozgat Blues 2013, 93 min.
Directed by Mahmut Fazıl Coşkun
Subtle humor and a strong ensemble cast highlight this tale of a nightclub singer and his protégé who relocate from Istanbul to a small regional city.

Sunday, April 13, 1 p.m.
Araf: Somewhere in Between 2012, 124 min.
Directed by Yeşim Ustaoğlu
A riveting lead performance anchors this poignant coming-of-age film about a young woman trying to move beyond the limitations of her mundane rural life.

Sunday, April 13, 3:30 p.m.
Happy Family Journal 2013, 94 min.
Directed by Nihat Durak
Legendary Turkish actor Tuncel Kurtiz, who died in 2013, stars in this quirky comedic look at the ties that bind a family together.

Sunday, April 13, 5:30 p.m.
Jin 2013, 122 min.
Directed by Reha Erdem
In this take on “Little Red Riding Hood,” a teen Kurdish freedom fighter shows her survival instinct when she escapes into the forest to reunite with her family.

---

Admission: $10
MFAH Members, senior adults, and students with ID receive a $2 discount.

Write to film@mfah.org to inquire about group sales.

Tickets on sale now at mfah.org and in the Museum lobbies.

Thanks to the Consulate General of Turkey in Houston; Cenk and Catherine Ozdogan; the Boston Turkish Film Festival; and the Adana Golden Boll Film Festival.

The MFAH film department is supported by Tenaris; Franci and Jim Crane; the National Film Preservation Foundation; James V. Derrick; Ms. Melanie Gray and Mr. Mark Wawro; Gary Tinterow and Christopher Gardner; Lynn S. Wyatt; and Nina and Michael Zilkha.